

LINDA RALLO, Vice President, Aligned

Linda Rallo has supported education advocacy for more than 20 years, the last eight as the Vice President of the Aligned, where she oversees education policy and advocacy in Missouri.

She received a Bachelor of Journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia and a Master of Public Policy Administration from the University of Missouri-St. Louis. She has been focused on early childhood education and workforce development and is keenly interested in advancing public policies that lead to economic growth.

Her professional highlights include working on adding state funding for Pre-K in the foundation formula, removing the ban on quality rating systems for early care and education, and serving as a co-lead with a team advocating for the creation of the Office of Childhood.

She and her husband, Nick, have three adult children and enjoy entertaining, home improvement projects, and spending time with their new grandson.
