

MELISSA ROBINSON, President, Black Health Care Coalition

Third District Councilwoman Melissa Robinson
Melissa Robinson, a Robert Woods Johnson Fellow, is currently employed with the Black Health Care Coalition as the President.

She is responsible for leading the organization to fulfill strategic goals, maintain sustainable community partnerships and play a major role in community efforts that create health equity.

Melissa Robinson is leading efforts to address the social determinants of health; ensuring the organization is making a significant impact on reducing health disparities in the areas of hypertension, obesity, infant mortality, diabetes, breast and prostate cancer and childhood asthma.

She is the host of “Voices From Midtown and Beyond”, a radio program that airs weekly on KPRT 1590 AM.
