

Sara Gould, PhD
Children's Mercy Kansas City

Dr. Gould is a Board-Certified Clinical Child and Adolescent Psychologist and Certified Eating Disorders Specialist at Children's Mercy, Kansas City, and an Associate Professor of Pediatrics through the University of Missouri- Kansas City. She is the Director of the Children's Mercy Eating Disorders Center and an Adjunct Researcher at The University of Kansas. She graduated from the University of Kansas Clinical Child Psychology Program in 2011 and then completed a post-doctoral fellowship focused on eating disorders at Children's Mercy. Dr. Gould provides individual and family therapy to children and teens and their families, as well as supervising psychology and medical trainees and is passionate about partnering with the community to better identify and treat eating disorders in young people.