

SCOTT HALL, Senior Vice President, Civic and Community Initiatives, Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce / President, KC Chamber Foundation

Scott Hall is the Senior Vice President for Civic and Community Initiatives at the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce and the President of the KC Chamber Foundation. In these roles, Scott oversees much of the KC Chamber's community impact work, including projects in early childhood education, community health, and inclusive prosperity.

Scott is, proudly, a lifelong Kansas Citian and he and his wife Suzy have four kids - John, Katie, Mary Jane, and Christopher. His mother has been a member of the Junior League of Kansas City for more than 50 years and Mr. Hall currently serves as a member of the League's Community Advisors Board.
