

TERRELL "TJ" JOLLY, Founder, Integrity Capital Management

Terrell "TJ" Jolly is the CEO and Managing Partner of several property entities that oversee more than 200 plus residential and commercial real estate properties.

The common thread of these entities is to revitalize the urban core of Kansas City through affordable housing and pathways to quality housing for all. Terrell focuses on ensuring best in class management services for a wide range of clients, including property owners, residents, investment partners, nonprofits and housing agencies.

Terrell has over 10 years' experience as an executive in the field of single-family, multi-family, residential and commercial property management.

His approach is simple – Be knowledgeable, honest, diligent, and a true leader.