

TODD MOORE, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Program and Project Strategist, American Academy of Family Physicians

At the American Academy of Family Physician's (AAFP) Center for Diversity and Health Equity, Todd Moore supports over 140,000 physician members in their DE&I strategies and activities across the country.

For nearly the past 10 years, Todd has served as co-chair of the Heartland Regional Health Equity Council, overseeing the Heartland Conference on Health Equity and Patient Centered Care –the largest health equity conference in the region.